Additional material 1:

Figure 1: Distribution of the scores of the SAS according to the scoring level of patients aged at least 18 years (A), between 18 and 70 years (B) and over 70 years (C)

* designates items for which a floor effect was found (over 15% of the population presenting the lower limit score)

- Level 1 (Activity impossible irrespective of help);
- Level 2 (Activity possible with human help for the whole of the activity);
- Level 3 (Activity possible with human help);
- Level 4 (Activity possible with technical help and/or adjustment but without human help);
- Level 5 (Activity possible without help)